Suffolk County Legislature Presiding Officer William J. Lindsay recently celebrated the Grand Re-Opening of Tag Beverage, a local food and beverage distributor on Main Street in Holbrook. Pictured with Presiding Officer Lindsay is owner Thomas Gandley, his wife Michelle, and former professional baseball player, Dwight 'Doc' Gooden.

The Gandley family also owns Tag Liquors, also located on Main Street, which has been open and friendly to local residents for twenty-five years. Both businesses have improved the local business community, and they continue to make Holbrook a great place to live, work and shop.

"The re-opening of Tag Beverage will spur economic development for our local downtown area, which has always been a top priority while I have been in office over the past eleven years," said Presiding Officer Lindsay. "I extend my best wishes to Tom and the entire Gandley family for many more successful years in Holbrook."
